Impressions: The Digital Art of Marta Nael, is the first illustration book by the young artist Marta Nael. By means of a colour and brightness explosion, Marta takes us into a universe where fantasy mixes with reality, which leads to beautiful women, mysterious creatures and landscapes that seem taken from a dream. In these pages we will be able to find a wide sample of the illustrator's repertoire. She uses several techniques among which the "digital impressionism", as she names it, and through a series of tutorials explains us which are the steps that she follows to build up her creative conception of the world. If you want to steal fantasy, you will have to keep it in this book.
